General Information

All corporations and limited liability companies ("LLCs") registered with the Arizona Corporation Commission are required to appoint a statutory agent in the state of Arizona. See A.R.S. §§ 10-501 (for-profits), 10-3501 (nonprofits), 10-1507 (foreign corps), 29-604 (LLCs), 29-806 (foreign LLCs). The statutory agent is required to accept the appointment by signing a statement of acceptance. See A.R.S. §§ 10-202 (for-profits), 10-3202 (nonprofits), 10-1503 (foreign corps), 29-632 (LLCs), 29-802 (foreign LLCs). Statutes are available on the Arizona Legislature's website, www.azleg.gov, by following the link for Arizona Revised Statutes.

The Statutory Agent Acceptance form provided by the Arizona Corporation Commission meets the minimum statutory requirements. Use of the A.C.C.'s form is not required.

What is a Statutory Agent?

A Statutory Agent is an individual or a business entity that a corporation or LLC appoints for the purpose of accepting service of process (lawsuit papers or legal documents) for the corporation or LLC. See A.R.S. §§ 10-501, 10-504, 10-1507, 10-1510, 10-3501, 10-3504, 29-604, 29-606. The agent is called a "statutory" agent because a statute requires that the corporation or LLC appoint someone for this purpose. See A.R.S. §§ 10-501, 10-504, 10-1507, 10-1510, 10-3501, 10-3504, 29-604, 29-606. If, for example, a lawsuit is filed against the corporation or LLC, the Statutory Agent will be the one who is served (receives the papers on behalf of the entity), and then the Statutory Agent should give the papers to the corporation or LLC. Note that the law requires that the corporation or LLC maintain a statutory agent with a valid address on the records of the Arizona Corporation Commission at all times, and the failure to do so will subject the corporation or LLC to being administratively dissolved. See A.R.S. §§ 10-1420, 10-11420, 29-786. Official notices from the Arizona Corporation

Commission will be sent to the statutory agent's address.

Who can be the Statutory Agent?

A Statutory Agent can be an individual, or an Arizona corporation or LLC, or a foreign corporation or LLC that is authorized to transact business in Arizona. A corporation or LLC cannot be its own Statutory Agent – it must appoint someone apart from itself. For example, the LLC can appoint one of its members or managers in his or her capacity as an individual as the statutory agent, but cannot appoint the LLC itself as the statutory agent.

If an individual is appointed as the statutory agent, that individual must be a permanent, full-time resident of the State of Arizona and must have a permanent, full-time physical or street address in the State of Arizona. The mailing address, if any, of that individual statutory agent must also be in Arizona.

The statutory agent must accept the appointment in writing. The statutory agent can accept the appointment by completing and submitting the Statutory Agent Acceptance form M002 found on our website at: <http://www.azcc.gov/Divisions/Corporations/forms/formsindex.asp>. If the statutory agent is an entity, an authorized agent of that entity can sign the acceptance. An authorized agent is anyone given authority to sign for that entity.

Is the Acceptance form the same as an appointment?

No. Use a Statement of Change form to appoint a new statutory agent. Forms are available on our website at this link: <http://www.azcc.gov/Divisions/Corporations/forms/formsindex.asp>.

Who can sign the Acceptance form?

Only the statutory agent that has been appointed can sign the form. If an individual has been appointed, that individual will sign the form. If an entity has been appointed as statutory agent, then an authorized agent for that entity will sign the form. An authorized agent is anyone given authority to sign for that entity.

Who can submit the Acceptance form?

Once the Acceptance is signed by the statutory agent, anyone can submit the form to the A.C.C. It is strongly recommended, however, that the Acceptance be submitted simultaneously with whatever other document makes the appointment to ensure accurate processing of both documents.

Filing fee. There is no filing fee. If the Acceptance is submitted separately from the document making the appointment (not recommended), the Acceptance can be independently expedited. For expedited processing (read the next paragraph), add $35.00 to the filing fee. All fees are nonrefundable. See A.R.S. §§ 10-122 (for-profits), 10-3122 (nonprofits), 29-851 (LLCs).

Processing time. Processing times are posted on the A.C.C. website each Monday at www.azcc.gov/Divisions/Corporations. For expedited (faster) processing, payment of the expedite fee plus payment of the filing fee must be submitted. See A.R.S. §§ 10-122 (for-profits), 10-3122 (nonprofits), 29-851 (LLCs). The expedite fee is $35.00. See Decision No. 68008, July 22, 2005, Docket No. AC-00000A-05-0488. The Arizona Corporation Commission does not currently offer same day or next day service.
